Share with the rest of your group a time in your life when you took a shortcut in an unimportant area of your life and it didn't work out. Have you tried to take any shortcuts in important areas of your life? How has that worked?

Our Destiny: Read Mark 12:30-31 and Matthew 28:18-20. What does it mean to be a Great Commandment and a Great Commission church? Where are we good as a church in these two callings? Where are we weak? What disciplines can we establish as individuals and as a church to bridge the gap between our desires (who we want to be) and our destiny (who we will end up being)?

Read Galatians 5:16-17, in this passage we see that the key to resisting our sinful desires and fulfilling our Godly desires is to "walk in the Spirit" how does establishing spiritual disciplines in our lives enable us to live by the power of the Holy Spirit's control?

Invest and Invite: In what ways are you investing in your relationship with God? In what ways are you investing in your relationships with others? What spiritual disciplines have you, or will you, develop to deepen your investments in these relationships? How are you doing at inviting others to experience your relationships? Is there someone that you believe God wants you to invite to experience the "In It to Win It" series beginning next week?

In the important areas of life there are no shortcuts!

Discipline bridges the gap between our Desires and Destiny.

Our Destiny: Where are we going?

We are going to be a Great Commandment Church. Mark 12:30-31

We are going to be Great Commission Church. Matthew 28:18-20

Our Next Steps: How do we get there?

Lessons from Peter: Peter kept moving to the Next Right Thing
Luke 22:56-57, Acts 2:36,41; 4:10,12; John 21:18-19, Acts 1:4-8;2:4

Step 1: Receive the Holy Spirit of God
Ephesians 1:13, Romans 3:23; 6:23; 10:9-10

Step 2: Walk in the Power of the Spirit
Colossians 2:6, Galatians 5:16-17

Big moves you can take in fulfilling the Great Commandment

Connect: Invest in your relationship with God and others

Share: Invite others to experience your relationships
